INTRODUCTION

Most of us remember where we were on the morning of September 11, 2001. We watched in horror as images of the terrorist attacks flooded the news media. We mourned the thousands of men, women, and children who perished in the World Trade Center, in the Pentagon, and in a field in Pennsylvania.

Churches, synagogues, and mosques opened their doors as people tried to find meaning. Believers - old and new - found comfort, strength, and challenge in prayer.

This September, our assemblies will be faced with renewed turmoil. Media coverage, national observances and family gatherings will refresh their minds and open their wounds. Our nation will again express its grief. While politics and patriotism will certainly be visible, prayer should take the more central role on this somber anniversary.

On the following pages, I offer a few suggestions for communal and private prayer.

Certainly, the parish will want to commemorate the day with Mass. In 2021, September 11 falls on Saturday of the Twenty-third Week of Ordinary Time. During the day, the priest celebrant may choose from several options in the Roman Missal and its Lectionary for Mass – Masses for the Dead, Mass for the Preservation of Peace and Justice, and Mass in Time of War or Civil Disturbance. Mass preparation sheets are provided herein.

The parish may also wish to prepare a prayer service for use outside Mass. This might be a fine choice for a school assembly or an evening prayer service to begin meetings. This option will be best for an ecumenical or interreligious service. It would be important to meet with the representatives of various faith communities beforehand and have them be involved in the actual preparation of the event (cf. Directory for the Application of Principles and Norms on Ecumenism, 111).

Finally, this resource provides a broad range of music suggestions, sample intercessions, and prayers.

Consider the environment for the church building on September 11 or for that entire weekend’s liturgies. Though the American flag is ordinarily not to be displayed in the sanctuary or nave of the church, on this occasion it might be appropriate in the gathering space or other visible location.

Consider preparing, printing, and distributing prayer cards. Alternately, post something on the parish website. This will be particularly helpful for those who are still confined to their homes due to advanced age or to coronavirus health concerns. These can also be used for family prayer time.

Certainly, September 11 will always be a day of solemn remembrance. It is right that this day should never pass from our collective memory. On this twentieth anniversary, let us not only remember this tragic day, but also acknowledge a longing for peace, the peace that only Christ can give. ■ RT
PREPARATION NOTES

★ Sufficient seating should be arranged in the sanctuary (or the front pews) for the presider and other visiting clergy.

★ Other liturgical ministers should be recruited -- including readers, cantors, instrumentalists, a cross bearer, candle bearers, candle lighters, and hospitality ministers.

★ In a Bible or Lectionary, the readings may be marked with a ribbon.

★ The presider's text should be placed in a worthy binder. Additional copies may be made for other ministers.

★ Though the American flag is not ordinarily in the sanctuary or the nave of the Church, on this occasion, it may be appropriate to place it in the nave, in the midst of the assembly or near the sanctuary.

★ The Paschal Candle might be placed next to a Book of Remembrance. The names of those who perished on September 11, 2001 may be found at https://www.911memorial.org/ or other websites. Flowers or plants might also adorn this space.

★ A candle stand might be placed in the sanctuary or nave of the church with a sufficient number of candles (seven). A candle should be lit at the ambo.
INTRODUCTORY RITES

OPENING SONG

See suggestions herein

GREETING

Presider:  In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
All:  Amen.

Presider:  May the God of all consolation be with you.
All:  And with your spirit.

INTRODUCTION

in these or similar words

Presider:  On September 11, 2001, the United States was senselessly attacked by terrorists. Thousands perished in the World Trade Center, in the Pentagon, and in a field in Shanksville, Pennsylvania. The victims were Americans. The victims were citizens of over fifty other countries.

We pause today [tonight] to remember those who have died. We ask God to be merciful to them and to give them eternal rest. And we gather as a nation, still mourning so great a loss of life, still living under the possibility of more evil deeds, still at war with terrorist actions. We gather as a nation “under God,” and with full trust in his love, compassion, and justice.

Let us call to mind all those who died on September 11, 2001.

AN ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

As each phrase is read, minister(s) could light a candle. At least fifteen seconds of silence should be maintained between each phrase. A somber tolling of a bell or a sung acclamation might conclude each invocation.

Reader:

★ For the passengers on American Flight 11 and United Flight 175 which were flown into the World Trade Center.
★ For all the workers who perished in the World Trade Center and neighboring buildings.
★ For the firefighters, police, and rescue workers who died trying to save others.
★ For the crew and passengers on American Airlines Flight 77 which was flown into the Pentagon.
★ For the military personnel and civilians who were killed and injured at the Pentagon.
★ For the heroic crew and passengers on United Flight 93 which crashed into the field in Shanksville, Pennsylvania.
★ For all military personnel who have died in the battle against terrorism.
★ For all those who have died as the result of terrorist activity and for those who mourn them.
OPENING PRAYER

Presider: Let us pray.

God of loving kindness,
those who have died still live in your presence.
Welcome into your loving embrace all those who died on September 11, 2001.

Grant them eternal rest.
Comfort those who mourn them.
Open our hearts to hear your word,
and in it, find light in time of darkness, and strength in our belief that your Son won for us eternal life.

Through that same Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

SAMPLE INTERCESSIONS

SAMPLE INVITATIONS

Presider: Let us pray to the Lord God, the defender of the weak and the powerless, who delivered our ancestors from harm.

Presider: Let us turn to our compassionate Father, who listens to our prayers.

Presider: Confident in the abiding love of the Father, let us turn to him with our petitions.

SAMPLE INTERCESSIONS

Please choose from among the following.

For the Church throughout the world, especially where her members are persecuted, that the gift of faith will give them peace, we pray.

For the President, Congress, and for all national leaders, that their judgments be guided by compassion and justice, we pray.

For all who protect us, especially for those who serve in the military, the police, and firefighters, we pray.

For peace throughout the world and for an end to terrorist attacks, we pray.

For negotiators and diplomats, that their attempts to reach peaceful resolutions to conflicts may prove fruitful, we pray.

For all who are victims of violence and oppression, for spouses who have been widowed, for children who have been orphaned, and for all who have been traumatized, we pray.

For the people of New York City, the Pentagon, and Pennsylvania, who live with the daily reminder and effects of evil deeds, that they may find peace, we pray.

For the children of the world, we pray.

For refugees and immigrants and for the people and agencies who advocate for them, we pray.

For our enemies, we pray.

For all who lost loved ones on September 11, 2001, may the darkness and doubt which comes from grief, be enlightened by faith and friendship, we pray.

For our beloved dead, especially those who died from terrorist activities, on September 11 and in the years since, we pray.
SAMPLE CONCLUDING PRAYERS

Lord God,
Your own Son was delivered into the hands of the wicked, yet he prayed for his persecutors and overcame hatred with the Blood of the Cross.
Relieve the suffering of those harmed by violence;
grant them peace and renewed faith in your protection and care.
Protect us all from violence, keep us safe from the weapons of hate, and restore us to tranquility and peace.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God,
you have promised that you will dwell with us
and that we will be your people;
and one day you will wipe away every tear from our eyes,
and death will be no more,
and mourning and pain will be no more,
for you make all things new.
We praise you and long for the fullness of your reign.
Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Father in heaven, Creator of all,
look down upon your people in their moment of need,
for you alone are the source of our peace.
Bring us to the dignity which distinguishes the poor in spirit and show us how great is the call to serve, that we may share in the peace of Christ who offered his life in the service of all.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Alternative Opening Prayer, 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time, 1985 Sacramentary
The following prayer was prayed by both Pope Benedict XVI (on April 20, 2008) and by Pope Francis (on September 25, 2015) when each visited Ground Zero in New York City.

O God of love, compassion, and healing, look on us, people of many different faiths and traditions,
who gather today at this site,
the scene of incredible violence and pain.
We ask you in your goodness to give eternal light and peace to all who died here-- the heroic first-responders:
our fire fighters, police officers,
emergency service workers, and Port Authority personnel, along with all the innocent men and women who were victims of this tragedy simply because their work or service brought them here on September 11, 2001.

We ask you, in your compassion, to bring healing to those who, because of their presence here that day, suffer from injuries and illness.
Heal, too, the pain of still-grieving families and all who lost loved ones in this tragedy.
Give them strength to continue their lives with courage and hope.

We are mindful as well of those who suffered death, injury, and loss on the same day at the Pentagon and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania.
Our hearts are one with theirs
as our prayer embraces their pain and suffering.
God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world:
peace in the hearts of all men and women and peace among the nations of the earth.
Turn to your way of love those whose hearts and minds are consumed with hatred.

God of understanding,
overwhelmed by the magnitude of this tragedy,
we seek your light and guidance
as we confront such terrible events.

Grant that those whose lives were spared may live so that the lives lost here may not have been lost in vain.
Comfort and console us,
strengthen us in hope,
and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where true peace and love reign among nations and in the hearts of all.

A PRAYER SERVICE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW YORK

Courtesy of Father Matthew Ernest, Director of the Office of Liturgy

Lord of Mercy, Prince of Peace,
This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of memory.

This day does not pass in the calendar without our remembering.
We remember images of death and destruction.
Images that human eyes were never meant to see.
We remember words our ears were never meant to hear, the tender last words of husbands and wives who would never embrace again.

We imagine the feeling of emptiness in the arms of children who at the end of the day could not find mom or dad for their welcome home hug.
We remember our own feelings of emptiness as our sense of security, as our own confidence in the predictable order of life and work was radically shaken.

This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of memory.

We remember the heroism of the many that lost their lives in saving others.
We remember all those who suffered and died;
we grieve for them still, friends and strangers alike, along with their families and friends.

This date, 9-11, carries a heavy burden of memory.

And it is right that it should not pass from our memory.
But today, and in this prayer, along with our remembrance of profound loss, it also seems right that we give voice to our deep longing for peace, and with this prayer, commit ourselves to those actions that will draw us closer to our most ancient and most holy desire, peace among all God’s children.

A PATRIOT DAY PRAYER – XAVIER UNIVERSITY

Holy God,
Creator of all people and all nations, it is with sorrow and apprehension that we remember the tragic events that occurred on this day.

We lift to you in prayer all those who died in the Twin Towers, at the Pentagon, and on United Airlines Flight 93 in Shanksville, Pennsylvania.
We entrust them to your loving care.
Console their families, friends, and all who mourn this loss in the hope that all who trust in you find peace and rest in your Kingdom.

We pray for those who courageously responded to provide aid and comfort to the afflicted.
May their painful memories of that day be healed and transformed into strength and positive resolution.

We also pray for ourselves as we seek your strength and guidance.
We live in the aftermath of this tragedy and under the shadow of future acts of aggression;
we stand in need of Your assistance.

Enable us, dear God, to put an end to fear:
by resolving to live lives that are based on respect for one another;
by resolving to abide in a peaceful manner and never settle disagreements in our lives in a violent way; by resolving not to fall into the trap of blaming entire ethnic groups, races, or religions in response to acts of hostility;
and by resolving that justice, not revenge, prevails in our world.

Let us resolve that in the face of hatred, we will show love;
that in times of despair, we will be voices of hope and creators of new dreams;
that in times of darkness, we will be sources of light.

Let us resolve that we never regard forgiveness as weakness,
But rather as a source of strength in our lives and in our world.

And, let us honor the memory of nearly 3,000 individuals who died on September 11, 2001
by resolving, with your help almighty God, to truly live this way, so you may be glorified and your love made known to others through us. Amen. © JesuitResource.org

Where God seems not to be, where God seems to have withdrawn, there we shall find God most present.
This logic contradicts the logic of reason.
This is the logic of the Cross.
The logic of the Cross is a scandal to reason and must be maintained as such.
Only thus will we have access to God. Otherwise, we should never surmise it.
Reason seeks the cause of suffering.
Reason seeks evil for evil.
The Cross seeks no causes.
God is to be found in suffering and most intently of all.
Where reason sees the absence of God, the logic of the Cross sees God’s full revelation.
The Cross remains the Cross—the blind spot in the eye of reasoning and the wisdom of the world.

OPTION D
COLLECTS: FOR THE PRESERVATION OF PEACE AND JUSTICE (MVNO: 30)

O God, who have revealed that peacemakers are to be called your children, grant, we pray, that we may work without ceasing to establish that justice which alone ensures true and lasting peace. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

O God, who show a father's care for all, grant, in your mercy, that the members of the human race, to whom you have given a single origin, may form in peace a single family and always be united by a fraternal spirit. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

O God, Creator of the world, under whose governance the design of all ages unfolds, be attentive, we pray, to our petitions, and grant to our times tranquility and peace, that we may exult with increasing joy in praise of your great mercy. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

COLLECTS: IN TIME OF WAR OR CIVIL DISTURBANCE (MVNO 31)

O God, merciful and strong, who crush wars and cast down the proud, be pleased to banish violence swiftly from our midst and to wipe away all tears, so that we may truly deserve to be called your children. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

O God, author and lover of peace, to know you is to live, to serve you is to reign; defend against every attack those who cry to you, so that we, who trust in your protection, may not fear the weapons of any foe. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.
