Hospitality Ministers should be recruited to welcome the assembly as they arrive and to distribute worship aids.

At least two readers should be appointed to proclaim the reading(s), to read the Examination of Conscience, and to lead the Litany of Repentance. They are to be seated in the assembly.

A musician and cantor(s) should lead the assembly in song. Instrumental music may be played during individual confession. (A list of music suggestions is included herein.)

A Bible or Lectionary should be readied with the appropriate readings.

Lighting may be subdued. Candle(s) should be lit at the ambo. The appropriate number of candles should be lit on the Advent Wreath.

Stations for confessors should be prepared. Priests might stand or sit in isolated areas around the main body of the church to receive penitents. In this way, the communal nature of the rite is maintained. Candles may light these stations.

For the sake of simplicity, the presider alone or the presider and preacher could participate in the procession. Other priests could be seated in the sanctuary or in a reserved area before the liturgy begins.

OPENING HYMN

GREETING

Presider: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

All: And with your spirit.
INTRODUCTION

Presider: In these or similar words...

We all love heroes. We rejoice when a fireman rescues someone from a burning building. We cry when we see people lift a child from a house leveled by an earthquake. We marvel when someone bravely runs in to pull someone from a car accident.

How often do we truly reflect on the fact that God has saved us? Throughout salvation history, God has sent prophets to teach us and saints to lead us. He gives us his revealed truth in the Scriptures. He gives us grace in each sacramental encounter. He sent his only begotten Son to save us from our sins and to free us from death. He offers his ever-present Spirit to guide us still. We have been saved!

Tonight [today], let us trust in God’s mercy, remember his kindness, and be grateful for his faithfulness to his covenant.

In this sacrament of reconciliation, let us be mindful of those times when we have failed to follow God’s commandments and resolve, once again, to cooperate in his plan for our salvation.

OPENING PRAYER

Presider: My brothers and sisters, God calls us to conversion; let us therefore ask him for the grace of sincere repentance.

Silent prayer

Father of mercies and God of all consolation, you do not wish the sinner to die but to be converted and live. Come to the aid of your people, that they may turn from their sins and live for you alone. May we be attentive to your word, confess our sins, receive your forgiveness, and always be grateful for your loving kindness. Help us to live the truth in love and grow into the fullness of Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you for ever and ever.

All: Amen.
The following are suggested readings. Alternative readings may be selected. The preacher may wish to use one, two, or three readings. If only one is chosen, it is preferable that it be the gospel.

For ease of rehearsal, the readings are printed elsewhere in this booklet. A Lectionary or Bible should be used during the liturgy.

FIRST READING
Isaiah 35:1-6 a, 10
God himself will come to save us.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Psalm 85: 9ab, 10, 11-12, 13-14
“LORD, let us see your kindness.”
OR
“Come, O LORD, and set us free.”

SECOND READING
2 Corinthians 5:17-21
God reconciled the world to himself through Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION
Mark 1:15
The Kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the Gospel!

GOSPEL
Mark 1:1-8, 14-15
After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee preaching the Gospel of God” “This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the Gospel.”

HOMILY
The assembly is now invited to make an examination of conscience. This can be done in silence or by using the examination below. One reader alone may read the questions or two readers might alternate. Allow a brief period of silence between each one.

RITE OF RECONCILIATION

GENERAL CONFESSION OF SINS

Presider: God who is infinitely merciful pardons all who are repentant and takes away their guilt.
Confident in his goodness,
let us ask him to forgive all our sins
as we confess them with sincerity of heart.

All: I confess to almighty God
and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
and I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

LITANY OF REPENTANCE

Presider: Let us turn to Christ with confidence and ask his mercy.

Minister: You came into the world to seek and save what was lost.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: You came to give us life, life in its fullness.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: You became the source of salvation for all who obey you.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: Once and for all you died for our sins,
the innocent one for the guilty.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: In your mercy free us from the past and enable us to begin a new life of holiness.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: Make us a living sign of love for all to see:
people reconciled with you and with each other.
All: Lord, have mercy.
LORD’S PRAYER

Presider:  Now, in obedience to Christ himself, let us join in prayer to the Father, asking him to forgive us as we forgive others. Our Father, ...

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Presider: Almighty and eternal God, you sent your only-begotten Son to reconcile the world to yourself. Lift from our hearts the oppressive gloom of sin, so that we may celebrate the approaching dawn of Christ’s birth with fitting joy. Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

INDIVIDUAL CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

The presider or other minister might tell the assembly where the confessors will be located. Some brief words regarding the manner of confession should be given. The people may be encouraged to accept one of the penances which are found in the worship aid or the confessors may give a penance suited to the individual. The assembly may be advised to remain in church if there is to be a common ending. Quiet instrumental music might be played during this time.

PRAYER OF ABSOLUTION

Confessor: God, the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of His Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church, may God grant you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son, ✠ and of the Holy Spirit.

Penitent: Amen.
PROCLAMATION OF PRAISE FOR GOD’S MERCY

Presider: Almighty and merciful God, how wonderfully you created man and still more wonderfully remade him. You do not abandon the sinner, but seek him out with a father’s love. You sent your Son into the world to destroy sin and death by his passion and to restore life and joy by his resurrection. You sent the Holy Spirit into our hearts to make us your children and heirs of your kingdom. You constantly renew our spirit in the sacrament of your redeeming love, freeing us from the slavery of sin and transforming us ever more closely into the likeness of your beloved Son. We thank you for the wonders of your mercy, and with heart and hand and voice we join with the whole Church in a new song of praise: Glory to you through Christ in the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

All: Thanks be to God.
FIRST READING

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

The desert and the parched land will exult; the steppe will rejoice and bloom. They will bloom with abundant flowers, and rejoice with joyful song. The glory of Lebanon will be given to them, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon; They will see the glory of the LORD, the splendor of our God. Strengthen the hands that are feeble, make firm the knees that are weak. Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God, he comes with vindication, with divine recompense he comes to save you. Then will the eyes of the blind be opened, the ears of the deaf be cleared; then will the lame leap like a stag, then the tongue of the mute will sing. Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return and enter Zion singing, crowned with everlasting joy; they will meet with joy and gladness, sorrow and mourning will flee. The word of the Lord.
R: Lord, let us see your kindness.

I will hear what God proclaims;
The LORD – for he proclaims peace.
Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him,
glory dwelling in our land.

R: Lord, let us see your kindness.

Kindness and truth shall meet;
Justice and peace shall kiss.
Truth shall spring out of the earth,
and justice shall yield its increase.

R: Lord, let us see your kindness.

The LORD himself will give his benefits;
Our land shall yield its increase,
justice shall walk before him,
and prepare the way of his steps.

Alternative refrain: “Come, O LORD, and set us free.”
SECOND READING

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

2 Cor 5:17-21

Brothers and sisters:
Whoever is in Christ is a new creation:
the old things have passed away;
behold, new things have come.
And all this is from God,
who has reconciled us to himself through Christ
and given us the ministry of reconciliation, Namely, God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ,
not counting their trespasses against them and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

So we are ambassadors for Christ,
as if God were appealing through us.
We implore you on behalf of Christ,
be reconciled to God.
For our sake he made him to be sin
who did not know sin,
so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mark 1:15

The kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the Gospel.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Mark 1:1-8, 14-15

The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:

Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way. A voice of one crying in the desert: “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.”

John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. People of the whole Judean countryside and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins.

John was clothed in camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist. He fed on locusts and wild honey. And this is what he proclaimed: “One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

After John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the Gospel of God: “This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel.”

Lectionary #21 B
The Roman Martyrology for December 24 contains a formal announcement of the birth of Christ in the style of a proclamation. It begins with the creation of the world, mentions key events in the history of the people of Israel, and concludes with the birth of Jesus during the Roman Era.

In 1994, a new translation was approved for use in the dioceses of the United States by the USCCB. Later that year, it was confirmed by the Apostolic See. It was published in the 2004 Sacramentary Supplement. The translation that appears in the Roman Missal’s third edition returns to the original.

A formal Proclamation of the Birth of Christ may be chanted or recited after the greeting and introduction of the Christmas Midnight Mass. The Gloria and Opening Prayer immediately follow the proclamation.

The proclamation may also be sung or proclaimed in the Liturgy of the Hours on Christmas Eve. If it is used at Morning or Evening Prayer it follows the introduction of the hour and precedes the hymn. When it is proclaimed in the Office of Readings, it precedes the Te Deum.

It may be sung or recited at the ambo by a deacon, cantor, or reader. -- RT

After the greeting, the presider may introduce the Mass and the proclamation in these or similar words:

Presider: Throughout the season of Advent, the Church reflected on God’s promises, so often spoken by the prophets, to send a savior to the people of Israel who would be Emmanuel, that is, God with us. In the fullness of time, those promises were fulfilled. With hearts full of joy, let us listen to the proclamation of our Savior’s birth.
The twenty-fifth day of December, when ages beyond number had run their course from the creation of the world when God in the beginning created heaven and earth and formed man in his own likeness;
when century upon century had passed since the Almighty set his bow in the clouds after the Great Flood,
as a sign of covenant and peace;
in the twenty-first centuries since Abraham, our father in faith came out of the Ur of the Chaldees;
in the thirteenth century since the People of Israel were led by Moses in the Exodus from Egypt;
around the thousandth year since David was anointed King;
in the sixty-fifth week of the prophecy of Daniel;
in the one hundred and ninety-fourth Olympiad in the year seven hundred and fifty-two since the foundation of the city of Rome;
in the forty-second year of the reign of Caesar Octavian Augustus;
the whole world being at peace,
JESUS CHRIST, eternal God and Son of the eternal Father, desiring to consecrate the world by his most loving presence was conceived by the Holy Spirit, and when nine months had passed since his conception,
was born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem of Judah,
and was made man:
The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh.
This proclamation is to be sung on the Solemnity of the Epiphany. After the singing of the Gospel, the deacon or cantor may chant the following. For chant notation, please see the Roman Missal, Appendix, pages 1448-1449.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF EASTER AND THE MOVABLE FEASTS

Know, dear brethren, [brothers and sisters], that as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ,
so by leave of God’s mercy
we announce to you also the joy of his Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the eighteenth day of February will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the fifth day of April, you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the seventeenth [fourteenth] day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ,

On the twenty-fourth day of May, the feast of Pentecost.

On the seventh day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the twenty-ninth day of November,
the First Sunday of Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ,
to whom is honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.
O Wisdom of our God Most High,
guiding creation with power and love:
come to teach us the path of knowledge!

O Leader of the House of Israel,
giver of the Law to Moses on Sinai:
come to rescue us with your mighty power!

O Root of Jesse’s stem, sign of God’s love for all his people come to save us without delay!

O Key of David,
opening the gates of God’s eternal Kingdom:
come and free the prisoners of darkness!

O Radiant Dawn,
splendor of eternal light, sun of justice:
come and shine on those who dwell in darkness and in the shadow of death!

O King of all nations and keystone of the Church:
come and save man, whom you formed from the dust!

O Emmanuel, our King, and Giver of Law:
come to save us, Lord our God!
THE FEDERATION OF DIOCESAN LITURGICAL COMMISSIONS

The Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions was founded in 1969 by the then Bishops’ Committee on the Liturgy in order to assist with the implementation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and the revised liturgical books. Our mission remains the same. Our Federation continues to serve bishops, clergy, and parish liturgists in our roles as directors of Offices of Worship and members of diocesan liturgical commissions.

We hope this free resource will be of benefit to you and your parish. Other publications, including books, pamphlets, and downloadable bulletin inserts, are available at www.fdlc.org.

We also provide opportunities for liturgical formation. In 2015, watch for our nationwide workshops on the revised Rite of Celebrating Matrimony.

Associate Members are entitled to online resources, discounts on publications, and discounts to national meetings. For more information on Associate Membership, please visit www.fdlc.org/membership.
