PREPARATION

- Hospitality Ministers should be recruited to welcome the assembly as they arrive and to distribute worship aids.

- At least two readers should be appointed to proclaim the reading(s), to read the Examination of Conscience, and to lead the Litany of Repentance. They are to be seated in the assembly.

- A musician and cantor(s) should lead the assembly in song. Instrumental music may be played during individual confession. (A list of music suggestions is included herein.)

- A Bible or Lectionary should be readied with the appropriate readings.

- Lighting may be subdued. Candle(s) should be lit at the ambo.

- Stations for confessors should be prepared. Priests might stand or sit in isolated areas around the main body of the church to receive penitents. In this way, the communal nature of the rite is maintained. Candles may light these stations.

- For the sake of simplicity, the presider alone or the presider and preacher could participate in the procession. Other priests could be seated in the sanctuary or in a reserved area before the liturgy begins.

INTRODUCTORY RITE

OPENING HYMN

See suggestions herein

GREETING

Presider: Grace and peace be with you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ who laid down his life for our sins.

All: Glory to him for ever. Amen.
presider: Each time we gather for liturgy, we celebrate the Paschal Mystery of Christ. By his passion, death, and resurrection, he won for us our salvation. As we say in the Preface on Easter: “For he is the true Lamb who has taken away the sins of the world; by dying he destroyed our death, and by rising he restored our life.”

God calls each of us here tonight [today] to the sacrament of Reconciliation. We come to acknowledge our sins and to seek God’s forgiveness. As we approach this sacrament of mercy, let us be mindful of Christ’s sacrifice on the Cross.

Let us be grateful that he bore our sins on that Cross on Calvary – once, for all. Let us always be mindful that by his wounds we have been healed. And may we pray to be worthy of so great a sacrifice.

Opening Prayer

Presider: Brothers and sisters, God calls us to conversion; let us therefore ask him for the grace of sincere repentance.

Silent Prayer

Father of mercies and God of all consolation, you do not wish the sinner to die but to be converted and live. Come to the aid of your people, that they may turn from their sins and live for you alone. May we be attentive to your word, confess our sins, receive your forgiveness, and always be grateful for your loving kindness. Help us to live the truth in love and grow into the fullness of Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

All: Amen.
The following are suggested readings. Alternate readings may be selected. The preacher may wish to use one, two, or three readings. If only one is chosen, it is preferable that it be the gospel.

The readings are printed elsewhere in this booklet, for ease of rehearsal. A Lectionary or Bible should be used during the liturgy.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE: OPTION A

On December 22, 2014 Pope Francis met with the behind-the-scenes Vatican employees. After thanking them for their dedication, he encouraged them to examine areas of their lives. The following words are adapted from his remarks.

“Care for your spiritual life, your relationship with God.”
- Am I a Christian who is not nourished by prayer and the sacraments?
- Do I study the Word of God?

“Care for your family life…”
- Do I give my family time, attention, and love?
- Do I care for their daily needs?

“Heal the wounds of the heart with the oil of forgiveness…”
- Have I forgiven others who have hurt me?
- Have I said “I’m sorry” to those whom I have hurt and have I tried to make amends?

“Watch how you speak…”
- Do I need to purify my everyday language from offensive words, vulgarities, and phrases used in the worldly decadence?
- Do I gossip about others or tell false truths?

“Care for your work…”
- Do I work with enthusiasm and passion?
- Am I humble enough to thank the Lord for my accomplishments?
- Do I use my God-given skills and talents in the service of others?

“Avoid envy, lust, hatred, and negative feelings…”
- Are my thoughts and actions destructive toward my relationships, especially with those whom I love?
- Do my thoughts destroy my inner peace?
- Do I say insulting things when it would be better to remain silent?
- Do I surround myself with angry or destructive people?

“Reach out to those who need you… this is how you will be judged.”
- Do I assist the weak, the elderly, the sick?
- Do I stand up for foreigners or for those who are oppressed?
- Do I feed the hungry and shelter the homeless?

“Let go of…”
- “The bitterness that brings us to revenge”
- “The laziness that leads to existential euthanasia”
- “The finger-pointing that leads to pride”
- “The complaining that leads to despair”
Two readers might alternate. Allow a brief period of silence between each question or phrase.

Presider: The following examination of conscience is based upon the Confiteor. Please reflect quietly as each part is read.

I confess to almighty God
- Do I sincerely want to be set free from sin and turn again to God?
- Do I seek a deeper relationship with God in this sacrament of reconciliation?

and to you my brothers and sisters
- Have I contributed to the well-being and happiness of others at home?
- Am I aware of my global relationship to those suffering and dying in other parts of the world?
- Am I committed to seek peace and promote justice for every person?

that I have greatly sinned.
- Do I accept that society’s evils are within my power to change?
- Have my addictions affected my judgment or behavior?
- Have I knowingly ignored God’s commandments?

in my thoughts and in my words.
- Have I ever harbored ill thoughts against another person?
- Have my fears or prejudices prevented me from speaking out on behalf of the poor, the unborn, or people of other races?
- Have my words caused others hurt? Has my silence caused others harm?
- Do I need to be in control of all people and all situations?

in what I have done.
- Do I seek to be the center of attention? Have I imposed my will on others without respecting their needs or freedoms?
- Am I focused on my needs to the detriment of the needs of others?
- Am I obsessed with having the perfect body, making more money, or having the latest technology?

and in what I have failed to do
- Have I neglected my responsibilities to my family?
- Have I neglected my health?
- Have I neglected my prayer life?
- Do I use the earth’s resources wisely?
- Do I work more than is healthy for my mind or body?
though my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault:

- Do I blame others for my wrongdoing or for the misfortune that befalls me?
- Do I accept responsibility for the commitments I have made to others – my spouse? my parents? my children? my parish?

therefore, I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints,

- Do I reflect on the lives of model Christians which God has made known to me?
- Do I seek the guidance of Mary and the Saints?
- Do I appreciate the great gift of the Eucharist?
- Do I worship with my Community each Sunday?
- Do I reflect often on what God is calling me to do?

and you, my brothers and sisters,

- Am I so independent that I refuse to ask for help or let others assist me?
- Do I support and defend other members of my family?
- Do I give others the opportunity to share their gifts and talents?
- Do I treat those who wait on me or who work with me with the dignity they deserve as fellow human beings?

to pray for me to the Lord our God,

- Do I promise prayers for people and situations and not follow through?
- Do I remember to pray for others in my parish, especially for those who are preparing to receive the sacraments?
- Do I pray for the living and the dead?

RITE OF RECONCILIATION

GENERAL CONFESSION OF SIN

Presider: Brothers and sisters,
Let us call to mind the goodness of God our Father,
and acknowledge our sins,
so that we may receive his merciful forgiveness.

All: I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

LITANY OF REPENTANCE

Presider: Christ our Lord was given up to death for our sins and rose again for our justification.
Let us pray to him with confidence in his goodness.

Presider: You were sent with good news for the poor and healing for the contrite.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You came to call sinners, not the just.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You forgave the many sins of the woman who showed you great love.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You did not shun the company of outcasts and sinners.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You carried back to the fold the sheep that had strayed.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You did not condemn the woman taken in adultery, but sent her away in peace.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You promised Paradise to the repentant thief.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You are the atonement for our sins and the sins of the world.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Presider: You became the source of salvation for all who obey you.

All: Lord, have mercy.

LORD’S PRAYER

Presider: Let us now pray to God our Father in the words our Savior gave us, and ask him for forgiveness and protection from all evil.

All: Our Father,...

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Presider: Deliver us, Father, from every evil as we unite ourselves through penance with the saving Passion of your Son. Grant us a share in the joy of the Resurrection of Jesus who is Lord forever and ever.

All: Amen.
The presider or other minister might tell the assembly where the confessors will be located. Some brief words regarding the manner of confessions should be given. The people may be encouraged to accept one of the penances which are found in the worship aid or the confessors may give a penance suited to the individual. The assembly may be advised to remain in church if there is to be a common ending. Quiet instrumental music might be played during this time.

PRAYER OF ABSOLUTION

Confessor: God the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son,
has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins;
through the ministry of the Church,
may God give you pardon and peace,
and I absolve you from your sins
in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Penitent: Amen.

and the Son, ✞ and the Holy Spirit.

DISMISSAL

Presider: The Lord has freed you from your sins. Go in peace.
All: Thanks be to God.
A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Who would believe what we have heard?
To whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

He grew up like a sapling before him,
like a shoot from the parched earth;

There was in him no stately bearing to make us look at him.
nor appearance that would attract us to him.

He was spurned and avoided by people,
a man of suffering, accustomed to infirmity,

One of those from whom people hide their faces,
spurned, and we held him in no esteem.

Yet it was our infirmities that he bore,
our sufferings that he endured,
while we thought of him as stricken,
as one smitten by God and afflicted.

But he was pierced for our offenses,
crushed for our sins;
upon him was the chastisement that makes us whole,
by his stripes we were healed.

We had all gone astray like sheep,
each following his own way;
but the LORD laid upon him
the guilt of us all.

Though he was harshly treated, he submitted and opened not his mouth;
like a lamb led to the slaughter or a sheep before the shearers,
he was silent and opened not his mouth.

But the LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity.
If he gives his life as an offering for sin,
he shall see his descendants in a long life,
and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

Because of his affliction
he shall see the light in fullness of days;
through his suffering, my servant shall justify many,
and their guilt he shall bear.
Therefore I will give him his portion among the great,
and he shall divide the spoils with the mighty,
Because he surrendered himself to death and was counted among the wicked;
and he shall take away the sins of many,
and win pardon for their offenses.

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 32:1-2, 5, 7-11

R. Lord, forgive the wrong I have done.

Blessed is the one whose fault is taken away,
whose sin is recovered.
Blessed the man to whom the LORD imputes not guilt,
in whose spirit there is no guile

R. Lord, forgive the wrong I have done.

Then I acknowledged my sin to you,
my guilt I covered not.
I said, “I confess my faults to the LORD,”
and you took away the guilt of my sins.

R. Lord, forgive the wrong I have done.

You are my shelter; from distress you will preserve me;
with glad cries of freedom you will ring me round.

R. Lord, forgive the wrong I have done.

Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you just;
exult all you upright of heart.

R. Lord, forgive the wrong I have done.
A reading from the first Letter of Saint Peter

Beloved:
If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good,
this is a grace before God.
For to this you have been called,
because Christ also suffered for you,
leaving an example that you should follow in his footsteps.
He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.

When he was insulted, he returned no insult;
when he suffered, he did not threaten;
instead, he handed himself over to the one who judges justly.
He himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross,
so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness.
By his wounds you have been healed.
For you have gone astray like sheep,
but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

The word of the Lord.

VERSE BEFORE THE GOSPEL

Through wood we became slaves,
and through the holy Cross we were freed;
the fruit of the tree seduced us,
the Son of God redeemed us.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

When the soldiers came to the place called the Skull, they crucified Jesus and the criminals there, one on his right, the other on his left. Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, “Are you not the Christ?” Save yourself and us. The other man, however, rebuking him, said in reply, “Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but thus man has done nothing criminal.” Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom.” He replied to him, “Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

Choose one of the following penances to atone for sins and accept God's mercy.

FOR ADULTS

- Think of someone you have been uncharitable towards and pray for them each day for a week.

- During the next week, spend an hour in prayer for those who are the victims of war.

- Make a commitment to bring food to the parish food pantry.

- Identify a person whom you have offended by your unkind words and pray for them each day for a week.

- Reflect on the Corporal Works of Mercy. Act on one of them -- feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit those in prisons, bury the dead, or give alms to the poor.

- Reflect on one of the following Lenten readings from Year C:
  2 Corinthians 5:17-21  Philippians 3:8-14

FOR YOUTH

- Eliminate TV for one night. Read from the Bible or your religion text.

- Reach out to a lonely person in class and encourage one other person to do the same. Have lunch together.

- Donate your next babysitting wages to the poor.

- For one whole week, do the dishes or set the table without being asked.

FREQUENTLY-ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. WHAT IS THE PROPER TIME FOR EASTER VIGIL?
A. On Saturday evening, April 17, the sun will set in our diocese at __. The end of civil twilight (nightfall) will occur at __. Ideally, the Easter Vigil celebration should not begin before __. Please check the website of the Naval Observatory for the exact time of nightfall in your area.

“According to a most ancient tradition, this night is one of vigil for the Lord, and the Vigil celebrated during it, to commemorate that holy night when the Lord rose from the dead, is regarded as the mother of all holy vigils. For in that night, the Church keeps vigil, waiting for the resurrection of the Lord, and celebrates the sacraments of Christian initiation” (Paschale Solemnitatis: Circular Letter Concerning the Preparation and Celebration of the Easter Feasts, no. 77. Congregation for Divine Worship, January 16, 1988, [quoting Exodus 12:42; St. Augustine, Sermon 219; and the Ceremonial of Bishops].

“The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil takes place at night. It should not begin before nightfall; it should end before daybreak on Sunday. This rule is to be taken according to its strictest sense. Reprehensible are those abuses and practices that have crept into many places in violation of this ruling, whereby the Easter Vigil is celebrated at the same time of day that it is customary to celebrate anticipated Sunday Masses” (Ibid; no.78, quoting the Roman Missal).

Q. THERE ARE MORE THAN FORTY DAYS BETWEEN ASH WEDNESDAY AND EASTER. HOW DO WE COUNT THE “FORTY DAYS” OF LENT? WE DON’T COUNT SUNDAYS, RIGHT?
A. Of course, we “count” the Sundays! These days and their accompanying readings are vitally important to our understanding and celebration of the season of Lent. Indeed, most of our celebrations for our Elect are reckoned around these days and readings. Perhaps you are confused by the ancient practice of not fasting on Sundays and solemnities (Tertullian; canon 1251).

First, the Sacred Triduum is not part of Lent. Lent ends on Holy Thursday afternoon. (Indeed, Holy Week is not a full “week” at all.) Second, Ash Wednesday and the Thursday, Friday, and Saturday that follow it are traditionally called the “Porch of Lent.” The readings on these four days are training us to enter into the penitential season of Lent. They provide lessons on how to better pray, fast, and give alms. While Lent runs from Ash Wednesday to Holy Thursday, this method of counting will make obvious the traditional “forty days.”

Lent is a preparation for Easter – both for the Elect, who are preparing for the sacraments of initiation, and for the faithful, through reminders of their own baptism and through penitential practices (GNLYC 27).

Q. THE WORD "TRIDUUM" MEANS “THREE DAYS.” WHAT ARE THE THREE DAYS OF THE TRIDUUM?
A. The three days of the Sacred Triduum are Sunday, Saturday, and Friday. Our most solemn celebrations (Triduum, Sundays, and solemnities) are measured from sunset the evening before. We begin our celebration of the Sacred Paschal Triduum on Holy Thursday at the Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper.

This seventy-two hour period is the most important celebration of our entire liturgical calendar; it begins on Holy Thursday evening and concludes with Vespers (Evening Prayer) on Easter Sunday. The Sacred Triduum is actually ONE liturgy over three days. We may go home and come back again, but we do not actually “begin” and “end” our daily celebrations.

Q. WHEN DOES THE DEACON OR PRIEST USE THE DOUBLE ALLELUIA AT THE DISMISSAL?
A. The "double alleluia" is sung (or recited) on the Easter Vigil, Easter Sunday and all days during the Octave of Easter. It is used again at Pentecost (Vigil, Mass during the Day, and Vespers).

It is not used on the other Sundays and weekdays of the Fifty Days.

THE EASTER SEASON & THE PERIOD OF MYSTAGOGIA

“Since the distinctive spirit and power of the period of post-baptismal catechesis or mystagogy derive from the new, personal experience of the sacraments and of the community, its main setting is the so-called Masses for Neophytes, that is, the Sunday Masses of the Easter Season. Besides being occasions for the newly baptized to gather with the community and share in the mysteries, these celebrations include particularly suitable readings from the Lectionary...” (RCIA 247).

Acts 2:1-11
Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34
1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

They were filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak.
Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.
(OR Alleluia)
In one Spirit we were all baptized into one body.
Those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.
As the Father sent me, so I send you. Receive the Holy Spirit.
The Holy Spirit will teach you everything.
“The period of purification and enlightenment, which the rite of election begins, customarily coincides with Lent. In the liturgy and liturgical catechesis of Lent the reminder of baptism already received or the preparation for its reception, as well as the theme of repentance, renew the entire community along with those being prepared to celebrate the paschal mystery in which each of the elect will share through the sacraments of initiation. For both the elect and the local community, therefore, the Lenten season is a time for spiritual recollection in preparation for the celebration of the paschal mystery” (RCIA 138).

“This is a period of more intense spiritual preparation, consisting more in interior reflection than catechetical instruction, and is intended to purify the hearts and minds of the elect” and to enlighten their minds and hearts “with a deeper knowledge of Christ the Savior” (RCIA 139).

Among these rites are the scrutinies, which are solemnly celebrated on the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Sundays of Lent. “The scrutinies are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright and good” (RCIA 141). In accord with ancient tradition, the readings of Year A may be used, with the traditional gospels of the Samaritan woman at the well, the man born blind, and the raising of Lazarus, respectively (cf. RCIA 146).

The presentations of the Creed and the Lord’s Prayer take place during the week following the First and Third Scrutiny (unless they have been celebrated earlier). “Thus, with the catechumenal formation of the elect completed, the Church lovingly entrusts to them the Creed and the Lord’s Prayer, the ancient texts that have always been regarded as expressing the heart of the Church’s faith and prayer” (RCIA 147). Ideally, the presentations should be celebrated within Mass, with the faithful present (cf. RCIA 157, 178).

The preparation rites on Holy Saturday are most proximate to the celebration of the sacraments of initiation and, as a rule, should not be omitted. Among these rites is the recitation of the Creed. Again, according to ancient custom, the Elect recite (“give back,” redivio) the Creed which they had been given (“handing over,” traditio).

It is very important to remember that these rites are for the catechumens (Elect) only! Those who have been baptized “should not take part in rites intended for unbaptized catechumens” (USCCB, National Statutes for the Catechumenate, no. 31).

The Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions was founded in 1969 by the Bishops’ Committee on the Liturgy in order to assist with the implementation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and the revised liturgical books. Fifty-three years later, our mission remains the same. The members of our Federation continue to serve Bishops, clergy, and parish liturgists in our roles as directors of Offices of Worship and members of diocesan liturgical commissions.

We hope this free resource will be of benefit to you and to your parish. Other publications, including books, pamphlets, and downloadable bulletin inserts, are available at www.fdlc.org. Most are available in English and Spanish.

We also provide opportunities for liturgical formation. Perhaps you have attended one of our nationwide workshops on the revised Roman Missal, the Order of Celebrating Matrimony, the Misal Romano, or the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Perhaps you have participated in our series of webinars on the liturgical books, the liturgical year, or the rites of initiation.

Associate Members are entitled to online resources, discounts on publications, and discounts to national meetings. For more information on Associate Membership, please visit www.fdlc.org/membership.
